

THE TREELINE COMPANIES LEASES 2,406 SF ON LONG ISLAND TO TRADE UNION AT 400 GARDEN CITY PLAZA

(Garden City, NY – November 14, 2011) – The Treeline Companies, an owner and manager of office properties throughout the New York metropolitan region, announced today that Local 713 International Brotherhood of Trade Unions (IBOTU) Health and Welfare Fund has leased 2,406 square-feet at 400 Garden City Plaza, Treeline's commercial office building in Garden City, NY. Frances Schor, President of The Treeline Companies, made the announcement.

Kraig Silver, Executive Vice President of The Treeline Companies, represented the owner and the tenant in the transaction.

Local 713 IBOTU is a trade union which seeks to better the lives of its members and their families, and to give a voice to members' job related complaints. In 1998, the Health and Welfare Fund was created, and by self funding several medical plans, the IBOTU was able to form contracts with a multitude of popular insurance carriers. Local 713 IBOTU represents employees from every type of business from manufacturing and construction to clerical and sales.

400 Garden City Plaza is a multi-level steel and concrete building totaling 180,000 square-feet. The building is located adjacent to the Roosevelt Field Mall, with convenient access to major highways such as the Meadowbrook State Parkway, Long Island Expressway and Northern State Parkway. 400 Garden City Plaza offers tenants access to a full-service cafeteria, conference facilities, and a concierge service.

Established in 1985, The Treeline Companies is a premier, full-service real estate ownership and investment firm based in Garden City, New York. Although Treeline's roots are in Long Island, its branches extend throughout the five boroughs of New York City and the greater New York Metropolitan area.
